

A Message from the NCCU Alumni Association President: Resetting with Purpose, Refocusing with Unity

The NCCU Alumni Association is entering a new chapter — one rooted in transparency, collaboration, and purpose. In light of recent transitions and in response to the feedback of our valued alumni, we are launching a Reset and Refocus Plan to strengthen our foundation, rebuild trust, and align more closely with the mission of our Association, and the expectations of our beloved North Carolina Central University and the UNC System.

This is more than a change in leadership — it's a renewed commitment to Truth and Service.

Why the Reset?

Over the past few months, we've heard concerns from alumni across the country. Concerns about communication. About accountability. About structure and transparency. This reset is our answer and an inclusive plan that puts alumni back at the center of the work.

The Path Ahead

Our six-month Reset Plan focuses on:

- Clear Communication
- Centralized Tools & Training
- Compliance & Alignment
- Rebuilding Trust & Unity
- Sustainable Planning

We Are One Alumni Association

The theme guiding our reset is simple yet powerful: Unity and Collaboration. We will not always agree, but we will always listen. We will not always move at the same pace, but we will always move with purpose.

Now is the time to rise together. Let's reflect on the strides we have made, refocus on what more we can accomplish, and remember the mission that unites us all: advancing our beloved North Carolina Central University.

In Truth and Service,
